Carbon Monoxide Affidavit

Per California State Law, Health and Safety Code Section 17926, carbon monoxide alarms must be installed for the safety of the occupants.

Project Address: _____ Permit Number: _____

WHEN REQUIRED

An owner of a dwelling unit intended for human occupancy shall install a carbon monoxide device, approved, and listed by the State Fire Marshal pursuant to Section 13263, in each existing dwelling unit having a fossil fuel burning heater or appliance, fireplace, or an attached garage, within the earliest applicable time period as follows:

- For all existing single-family dwelling units intended for human occupancy on or before July 1, 2011.
- For all existing hotel and motel dwelling units intended for human occupancy on or before January 1, 2017.
- For all other existing dwelling units intended for human occupancy on or before January 1, 2013.

Where an addition is made to an existing dwelling, or a fuel-burning heater, appliance or fireplace is added to an existing dwelling, not previously required to be provided with carbon monoxide alarms, new carbon monoxide alarms shall be installed.

LOCATION

With respect to the number and placement of carbon monoxide devices, an owner shall install the devices in a manner consistent with California Building Standards applicable to new construction for the relevant type of occupancy or with the manufacturer's instructions, if it is technically feasible to do so.

- A carbon monoxide alarm is located on every level of the dwelling unit.
- A carbon monoxide alarm is located outside of each separate sleeping area in the immediate vicinity of bedrooms.
- A carbon monoxide alarm is located within a bedroom where a fuel-burning appliance is located within a bedroom or its attached bathroom.

EXCEPTIONS

- A carbon monoxide alarm is not required if the dwelling unit does not contain fuel burning appliances or has a detached garage.

Certification: ☐ Required ☐ Exempt

I, the property owner, understand and certify, under penalty of perjury, that carbon monoxide alarm(s) required by law have been installed and are operational in this dwelling in full compliance with the laws as noted above.
