Questions were posed to each candidate by the City Council and each candidate was given time to respond to the questions. No public comment was received following the interviews. Each Councilmember completed a prepared ballot that the Assistant City Manager/Finance Director and City Clerk tabulated. A runoff vote was then cast for the third seat between John List and Susan Rodman. John List then received the required number of votes for appointment. These three candidates were appointed to the four year terms of office and administered the Oath of Office.
