730 Main Street, Placerville, CA 95667

Placerville, CA – Placerville resident, Ramono Montes, arrested for sexual battery and other crimes after spree on Main Street.

Placerville Police Officers responded to reports of a male assaulting multiple citizens and damaging property on Main Street on September 3, 2020 at approximately 11:55 am.

When officers arrived in the area they encountered a male subject, known from past law enforcement contacts, as Ramono Montes. Montes failed to comply with lawful orders given by officers and fled on foot.

After a short foot pursuit, officers were able to safely take Montes into custody. Montes did continue to be non-compliant with officers while being arrested.

Upon further investigation, officers discovered that Montes had physically assaulted two citizens, lifted a female citizen's dress and touched her buttocks and vandalized private property.

Montes was booked into the El Dorado County Jail on several charges; including sexual battery, battery on a person, battery on a person causing injury, vandalism and resisting officers. Montes' bail was set at $313,000.
