Office of the Chief of Police
730 Main Street, Placerville, CA 95667

Placerville, CA – On February 9th, 2021, at about 7:34am, Placerville Police dispatch received a report of a possible dead body that had been found off of Broadway Drive, down an embankment, in Placerville. The reporting party said he was walking along the roadway when he noticed the body of a deceased male. This area is a known transient camp location. Placerville Police Officers and Paramedics arrived on scene and the male was pronounced deceased.

The deceased is known to the Placerville Police Department, but the next of kin has not been notified at this time. The deceased was last seen on February 8th, 2021 at the transient camp location consuming alcohol before leaving at approximately 7:00 pm.

The Placerville Police Department Investigations Unit requested the assistance of the El Dorado County Sheriff's Office CSI to assist in this investigation. A thorough review of the scene was completed by the CSI team that revealed nothing of suspicion. We are currently working with the El Dorado County Coroner's Office to determine cause of death. An autopsy, including toxicology report is still pending.

Anyone with information regarding this investigation is asked to contact the Placerville Police Department at (530)642-5210.
