

A PROCLAMATION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF
THE CITY OF PLACERVILLE RECOGNIZING ANDREW SCOTT PAINTER, CITY PLANNER, FOR 20 YEARS OF PUBLIC SERVICE WITH THE CITY OF PLACERVILLE DEVELOPMENT SERVICES DEPARTMENT, PLANNING DIVISION

WHEREAS, Andrew S. Painter began his service to the City of Placerville starting on August 27, 2001, when he started his position as an Associate Planner with the Planning Division of the Community Development Department; and

WHEREAS, Andrew was promoted to the position of City Planner on April 28, 2006, heading the Planning Division; and

WHEREAS, Andrew began his academic career at California State University, Chico with a major in Recreation Administration and after extensive world travel, touring the western United States, fishing and river rafting; Andrew found himself back at Chico State to pursue a Master of Rural and Town Planning degree; and

WHEREAS, Andrew landed a position with the Lassen County Department of Community Development in Susanville, California, as an Assistant Planner and later promoted to the position of Associate Planner; and

WHEREAS, Andrew's sense of wanderlust beckoned him to apply for the position of Associate Planner with the City of Placerville Community Development Department, beginning his long and successful career in city planning; and

WHEREAS, Andrew worked under three Directors including Steve Calfee, Mike Webb, and Pierre Rivas during his tenure, successfully supporting every function of the Planning Division; and

WHEREAS, Andrew provided exceptional staff support to the Historic Advisory Committee, the Planning Commission, the City Council, and the citizens of Placerville; and

WHEREAS, Andrew is retiring from the City of Placerville after 20 years of employment, during which he served as a representative of the City, working with property owners, developers, private organizations, and governmental agencies; he leaves his mark on the City's landscape.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Dennis Thomas, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Placerville, State of California, urge all citizens to join me in recognizing Andrew for his tireless and meaningful service to our community, extend our appreciation for the 20 years of public service and helping shape the City as a desirable place to live, work, and play; and further extending our best wishes in all his future endeavors.

Date: December 14, 2021

Mayor Dennis Thomas