

A PROCLAMATION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY
OF PLACERVILLE CELEBRATING 175 YEARS OF CALIFORNIA STATEHOOD

WHEREAS, on September 9, 1850, California was officially admitted to the Union as the 31st state, launching a rich and complex history of innovation, diversity, and progress that continues to shape our nation; and

WHEREAS, in the 175 years since statehood, California has become a global leader in agriculture, science, arts, environmental leadership, technology, and civil rights- and our own community of the City of Placerville has proudly contributed to that story; and

WHEREAS, generations of Californians- past and present- have worked to build a more inclusive, vibrant, and resilient future, reflecting the spirit of opportunity and perseverance that defines our state; and

WHEREAS, the City of Placerville joins communities across the Golden State in honoring this historic milestone and recognizing the shared values that unite us as Californians; and

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that I, John Clerici, Mayor of the City of Placerville on behalf of the City Council and the people of our city, do hereby proclaim September 9, 2025, as

and encourage all residents to take part in commemorating this momentous occasion through community events, civic engagement, and reflection on our shared heritage and future.

Dated: September 9, 2025.

Mayor John Clerici
